Provider Type

Public

The Instructional Leadership graduate program carries out the mission and vision of the Educator Preparation Program at the University of Tennessee at Martin. The foundation of the program is built on a set of core disciplines collaboratively developed with current district-level and building-level administrators from our primary partner and state-recognized districts, community members, and UTM faculty and staff. All aspects of our program are grounded in the following core principles: Connection, Communication, Coaching, Culture, Vision & Values, Equity & Integrity, Institutional Management, Change Agent, Results-Oriented, and Student-Focused.
